

Press Release

The Embassy of Nepal in Dhaka organized a special function at the Embassy this evening to mark the promulgation of the Constitution of Nepal, 2015.

Speaking on the occasion, the Ambassador of Nepal to Bangladesh H. E. Mr. H.K. Shrestha expressed the view that with the promulgation of the new Charter of the Land, Nepal has entered in a new era for the institutionalization of the federal democracy and socio-economic transformation of its people.

On the occasion, a visiting cultural troupe from Nepal presented songs, dances and a brief play to the audience. Recitation of poems and verses by the members of the Nepali Community and the visiting Nepali Cultural team was another attraction of the evening.

To celebrate the occasion, the Embassy was illuminated by colourful lights.
