NOTICE

FOR ASSISTANCE FOR NEPAL EARTHQUAKE VICTIMS

The Embassy of Nepal, Dhaka has opened a special bank account for collecting relief funds for the victims of the recent devastating earthquake in Nepal. We appeal our friends, corporate houses, voluntary organizations and the Nepalese community in Bangladesh for your generous contributions for the rescue, relief and rehabilitation operations underway in Nepal following the huge natural calamity.

The list of the donors and the amount of contribution will be uploaded on the Embassy's website www.nepembassy-dhaka.org from time to time. The funds received in Bangladesh will be aggregated and sent as a consolidated amount to the Prime Minister Disaster Relief Fund, which is the central conduit for the collection and distribution of relief assistance to the affected people. The details of the special relief account are as follows:

Name of Account Holder: Embassy of Nepal, Dhaka

Account Number: 1804011880

Name of Bank: Commercial Bank of Ceylone PLC, Gulshan Branch

Funds may also be remitted directly to the following bank accounts of Prime Minister Disaster Relief Fund in Nepal:
