Art works of Three Nepali Young Artists win Entry in South Asia Art Exhibition in Dhaka

Art works of three Nepali young artists have won entry in the South Asia Region Art Exhibition: “Imagining Our Future together” sponsored by the World Bank. Nepal’s young artists Prithivi Shrestha, Hitman Gurung and Koshal Hamal were among the 25 winners from among over 230 competitors from South Asia.

The first of the “Imagining Our Future Together” Exhibitions was opened by Mr. A.M.A. Muhith, Finance Minister of Bangladesh on 6 October 2012 at the National Arts Gallery, Shilpakala Academy, Dhaka. The exhibition will remain in Bangladesh from 6-13 October 2012 before travelling to other countries of South Asia.

The World Bank has stated that the Exhibition is a creative endeavour by the young artists of South Asia to showcase the beauty, creativity and challenges of the region and to join together to develop a common vision of South Asia’s future.
