Press Release

In Bangladesh, there has been a huge outpouring of support and solidarity with the victims of recent devastating earthquake in Nepal, both at the governmental and people's level. A team of medical doctors from Bangladesh is currently providing medical assistance to the quake victims while the next BAF flight is flying to Nepal shortly with additional relief supplies and army medical team.

The private sector is also generously providing relief assistance to the quake victims. On 27 April 2015, the food products conglomerate Pran Bangladesh decided to donate 3000 cartons of dry food and fruit drinks to the quake victims. A letter to this effect was handed over to Ambassador His Excellency Mr. HK Shrestha by Mr. Eleash Mridha, Director of the company, at a function in the Embassy yesterday.

Similarly, pharmaceutical companies such as Square and Incepta have also donated considerable amounts of essential drugs and life-saving medicines to the Embassy. A consignment of the relief materials were sent to Nepal through a scheduled Biman flight this afternoon. Mr. Nirmal P Bhattarai, Third Secretary, handed them over to authorities stationed at the Tribhuvan International Airport this afternoon.
